NOTICE SHEET

Congratulations to everybody who took on the first Lent Challenge - and produced a "free-from" meal this week! There were some very creative ideas - some of which are on the Facebook page for you inspiration. This week's challenge is to read one chapter of any book of the bible and summarise it in one sentence - results welcome at the virtual Coffee Morning!

Free to a good home: Given that re-using should come before recycling, could you use any empty jam jars? Ann Bird has dozens which could be used for storage of all kinds of things: jams, pickles, paperclips, spices, dried herbs, false teeth etc.

Also free to a good home: Epson Eco-Tank L355 printer/scanner/copier with ink, cables etc. See Fr Andrew for more details.

Don't forget the Virtual Coffee Morning on Zoom at 10am on Thursdays - the passwords you need are available from the clergy. You can join by telephone too.

Charis Harbidge writes: World Day of Prayer (WDP) - Fri 5 Mar at 10.30am - ZOOM SERVICE. Written by women of the Republic of Vanuatu, and entitled 'Build on a Strong Foundation' we are called to stand with Jesus, on the firm ground he offers us. If you would like to join us in this year's WDP Zoom Service, please contact: Charis (786014 : charisharbidgceca@gmail) for a small stock of Service booklets and the necessary codes for the Zoom meeting. If you are unable to join but would like a Service booklet to read through please ask. Stella Collier writes: I am pleased to be able to say that Felicity Myer is now out of hospital and in a Care Home, having to get used to isolation. If you'd like to drop her a line I have her address (786084).

One of the great ways to pass Lockdown is with a good DVD - and Chris Wood has a massive collection for sale (£1 each or 10 for a tenner...) - so do peruse the list and see what you're missing!
